

The H. Parsons Difference

130 years serving South Coast families Experience Counts

- Family owned, not a corporation
- Local team and local suppliers
- No commission paid to staff
- Complimentary services included
- Modern facilities and technology
- Your loved one is always in our care

We are proud of our history and the vital service we deliver

For over 130 years, H.Parsons has cared for the NSW South Coast community as an 100% locally owned and family-operated funeral director and where others have cut back, we give more.

More Time

We take the time to care.

Arranging a funeral can feel overwhelming, and we understand that every situation is different. We will meet with you as often as required to make organising this final celebration of life smooth for you and your family - before, during, and after the service.

More Service & More Value

We are committed to fair and transparent pricing. The cost for each item in your quote is inclusive of GST and, unlike some other funeral providers, we do not mark up the cost from florists, doctors, cemeteries, or other suppliers.

Our price includes items that other providers call 'optional extras' such as web streaming, digital recordings, a memorium book, and transfer of your loved one outside of business hours. We believe it is fundamentally unfair to charge a family more to transfer their loved one into our care after business hours.

Let's chat

Whether you are planning for now or for later, we invite you to meet with one of our funeral directors who will show you our facilities and explain service options. Call now on 4228 9622 to make an obligation-free appointment.
